M. Craig Reavis joined the MJ team as vice president, business + community development within our Benefits Consulting department. In his role, Craig focuses on new business development across all MJ business units and facilitates connections among local Tennessee business leaders. He is dedicated to relationship management and actively supports our mutually beneficial partnerships.

With nearly two decades of experience in the employee benefits and insurance industry, Craig brings a deep passion for building, strengthening, and nurturing relationships. He is also a dedicated community advocate, actively supporting MJ's commitment to community engagement through board service, volunteerism, and philanthropic initiatives.

When Craig isn't at work or giving back, he takes any chance he can to spend time with his family, including his four children and his wife, Elizabeth. In his free time you can find him doing CrossFit, trail running, or settling into his next read!
